International Political Science Association

The International Political Science Association (IPSA), founded under the auspices of UNESCO in 1949, is an international scholarly association devoted to the advancement of political science worldwide. IPSA has 59 national and regional association members, 79 institutional members, and over 4,400 individual members.

Partner with IPSA on the Democratization and Autocratization Conference

In partnership with the Portuguese Political Science Association and the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, and with the support of the Lisboa Convention Bureau, IPSA will hold a conference on Democratization and Autocratization to celebrate its 75th anniversary.

This three-day international conference will be held at Gulbenkian Foundation in Lisbon, Portugal from 11-13 September 2024. By partnering with IPSA, you will have the opportunity to:

- Network with scholars, government officials, international associations, NGOs, and students worldwide;
- Promote your organization, strengthen your brand, and maintain a strong presence among delegates and IPSA members.
