

The submission deadline is November 11, 2026 (please note that processing, peer review, and publication take place on a rolling basis).

Full-length research articles and book reviews are accepted for publication.

The Journal of Political Science: Bulletin of Yerevan University publishes balanced scientific approaches by scholars from all over the world and in all fields of political science, including Armenian politics, comparative politics, international relations and geopolitics, political theory and methodology, political education and socialization.

For preliminary inquiries, please contact: ashalex@ysu.am

Articles should be submitted via the website of the “Journal of Political Science: Bulletin of Yerevan University”. All submissions are subject to mandatory peer review.